

Since an imformed populace is a cornor stone of our democratic republic. The FCC must regulate and guard localism, competition and diversity for american citizens. When our airwaves are consoldated in a few select and powerful corporations, profit becomes the driving motive and not informing the local citizenry as required. If Rupert Murdoch or micky mouse signs the paycheck, the "news" will be the same. Censorship can be accomplished by omission!